

Lawrence Weston Community Farm and Forest of Avon Trust

OCN Introduction to Forest School

March 28th and 29th 2012

9.30am - 5.00pm

You've heard about Forest School - now come and experience one!

This course offers the opportunity to develop confidence, skills and knowledge in order to work with children in an outdoors setting. The course will be taught at Lawrence Weston Community Farm, Bristol, by Jon Attwood from the Forest of Avon Trust.

Over the two days you will:

- Experience a Forest School session
- Explore the benefits of using a Forest School approach with children of all ages
- Learn practical skills and activities to use with children in an outside setting
- Develop an understanding of how to work safely in a woodland environment
- Make a start on written work for your portfolio (to be completed in your own time to gain the accreditation).

This Level 1 course is suitable for teachers, support assistants, early years practitioners and parents. The cost of the course is £190.

This course also provides a stepping stone for those who want to go on and take the Forest School Leaders Course Level 3 (due to be delivered July 2012 - please call for more details).

For further information please contact Jon at the Forest of Avon Trust: jonattwood@forestofavontrust.org 0117 963 3383. To book contact Kerry at Lawrence Weston Community Farm: kerry@lwfarm.org.uk 0117 9381128

